The Urban Renewal Project is a Los Angeles-based band that plays an original mix of jazz, soul, and hip-hop featuring a singer, a rapper and a huge horn section. Since 2010, the fifteen-piece ensemble has teamed up with vocalists from across the spectrum to blend the hip-shaking grooves and deep pocket of today's music with face-melting horn lines and fiery improvisation from big band jazz. In the past few years, their signature sound has blown away audiences from SFJAZZ to the Jakarta International Java Jazz Festival.

San Pedro Festival of the Arts

The SAN PEDRO ♥ FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS (formerly the SP TriArt Festival) is a free family event featuring dance, music, & crafts, this year on Saturday and Sunday, Sept 22 & 23, 2018. This will be its 12th year. Six years ago, the TriArt Festival moved to Ports O' Call Village helping to draw in thousands of new spectators, performers, and vendors to showcase San Pedro as a center for art. Because of construction on the site the festival has moved this year to a location across from the USS Iowa, Port of Los Angeles. Original founder, Joe Caccavalla, envisioned the dance, music, and visual arts/ crafts as the heart of the festival to foster art appreciation.

After his death in 2012, the producers reformed as SAN PEDRO ♥ TRI ART Festival and since then our audience attendance has multiplied by the thousands along with increased recognition. It has become best known for its dance performances, also gaining increased recognition each year for its music. Our company, Los Angeles Choreographers & Dancers (LA C&D), had previously been the non-profit fiscal receiver for the festival, and we applied for and received a festival grant from the Department of Cultural Affairs, City of LA, which is still one of our major funders. Louise Reichlin is Executive Producer and Dance Director, and curates a diverse range of companies from a large competitive group of applications, this year including ballet, modern, jazz, contemporary, and specific and fusion ethnic groups. Included are both professional and pre professional dance companies so they can share their work with each other and the community. The festival also includes two Free Previews; Sept 6 during First Thursday at Peoples Place at 7 pm, and Sept 15 at Alvas Showroom, also at 7 pm. Please see web site for details.

Funds also come from Los Angeles County Supervisor Janice Hahn, and for the 6th time we received a Music in Public Places grant from the Los Angeles County Arts Commission. The 2018-19 Port of Los Angeles Community Investment Grant has also funded the festival. In-kind donations are again promised from Joe Buscaino Los Angeles City District's office of Jacob Haik, local district director. Many businesses contributed items including Alvas for the dance flooring, Peoples Place, and Peter Benjamins for Sound. Many of you have contributed help with our marketing, and gifts for the hourly free drawings! Thanks to our past and present funders and donors, the SAN PEDRO ♥ FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS is able to thrive another year and bring the vibrant San Pedro community quality art performances and unforgettable sites and sounds.
