Featured Music Group: District 4 Sunday @ 4:15 pm The Urban Renewal Project

The Urban Renewal Project

The Urban Renewal Project is a Los Angeles-based band that plays an original mix of jazz, soul, and hip-hop featuring a singer, a rapper and a huge horn section. Since 2010, the fifteen-piece ensemble has teamed up with vocalists from across the spectrum to blend the hip-shaking grooves and deep pocket of today's music with face-melting horn lines and fiery improvisation from big band jazz. In the past few years, their signature sound has blown away audiences from SFJAZZ to the Jakarta International Java Jazz Festival.

These activities are supported, in part, by the City of Los Angeles, Department of Cultural Affairs and the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors through the Los Angeles County Arts Commission. Other major sponsors include: Janice Hahn (Los Angeles County Supervisor District 4), The 2018-19 Port of Los Angeles Community Investment Grant, JoeBuscaino (Los Angeles City Council member District 15), Matt Lincir/Alvas LLC, Los Angeles Choreographers & Dancers, People's Place, Peter Benjamins, U-Printing, Battleship Iowa
